

SAVE THE DATE

21st Annual Violent Crime Behavioral Analysis Seminar

August 26 – 29, 2019

The Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) and the University of California at Los Angeles Police Department proudly announce the 21st Annual Violent Crime Behavioral Analysis Seminar.

This Seminar focuses on the behavioral examination of violent and repetitive crimes, including but not limited to threatening communications, sexual assault, crimes against children, and homicide.

This training is specifically designed for criminal justice professionals. Case sensitive information will be discussed. Therefore, only active law enforcement personnel will be authorized to attend. Law enforcement credentials will be required of all attendees.

Members of the FBI's Behavioral Analysis Units ("Profiling Units") will provide instruction at the Seminar. During the Seminar, FBI Profilers will conduct private case consultations of unsolved homicides or sexual assaults. Agencies interested in consulting with FBI Profilers on a case or cases should contact FBI Special Agent Jeffrey R. Cugno, (714) 939-3594 or jrcugno@fbi.gov, to schedule a private consultation.

WHERE:

UCLA
Carnesale Commons –
Palisades Room
251 Charles E. Young Drive
Los Angeles, CA 90095

WHEN:

August 26-29, 2019
7:00am – 4:00pm daily

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:

Patrol Officers
Investigators
Detectives
Analysts
Prosecutors
Coroner Personnel
Parole Agents
Probation Officers

TUITION:

$275.00

Tuition includes parking, training materials, light breakfast, and catered lunch each day.

HOW TO ATTEND:

Additional Information and Registration Instructions will be forthcoming.

You may send an e-mail to FBI Special Agent Jeffrey R. Cugno, jrcugno@fbi.gov, requesting to be placed on the training distribution list to receive the registration flyer.

POTENTIAL PRESENTERS:

If you are interested in presenting or know of an excellent presenter whom you would recommend, please contact FBI Special Agent Jeffrey R. Cugno.